Dear Ken:

I'm writing to compliment you on your company's performance with the stucco redo; The Siena building, 326 Queen Anne Avenue N, Seattle, WA.

First of all, the work your team, as well as any subcontractors contracted, has performed has been excellent and very professional. Second, even though the renovation has been an inconvenience at times, McBride Construction has made the experience as painless and pleasant as possible. The biggest impression made by your company though is that of Chris Burns. I have spoken to Chris on many occasions, with many questions and concerns, even aggravated at times, but felt as though he was my best friend by the way he treated me. He is always accommodating, caring, friendly, polite, professional, and solution oriented. I don't know much about the construction industry, but know when I'm being treated well, and that certainly has been the case with Chris and the rest of your company.

Thanks for making this renovation project as much of a pleasant and professional experience as possible. You guys are the best!

Sincerely,
